

The Dark Rachael Teixeira

"There are too many tight pairs of man-pants, too many "cooler than thou" attitudes, and too much pretension wandering down the streets of Seattle. Where's the soul? Where's the love? Where are the singer chicks, you meat-head? It's all right here, my lovely. Just say please."

Seattle-based singer and songwriter Rachael Teixeira has been making music for as far as she can remember. With a voice that perfectly balances softness and power, Rachael brings a soulful twist to her latest dream pop inspirations.

Rachael has performed in some of the most renowned theaters and pubs in the world's capital of indie music. she has been a part of bands such as If So Facto and The Meadow Roads. Her upcoming EP, The Dark, evolved as the result of a career with more than 15 years of musical experiences.
